

Partners in Prayer

July - August 2007

Praise:

- The two openings for Bible history teachers were filled with two very qualified individuals: David Adels at Ooltewah Middle School and John Perkins at Brown Middle School.
- Some Bible history students have begun attending youth programs at churches and have gotten their parents to also attend church.
- More churches are responding financially to support the Bible history classes in the schools within their communities.
- This past school year almost 4,800 students took Bible history. This is a 58% increase from the previous year.

Prayer:

- Pray that God will guide our two new teachers as they plan for the 2007-08 school year.
- Pray that Bible in the Schools will finish in the black for the 2006-07 fiscal year, which ends July 31st. We still need many donations.
- Pray that there will be a timely completion for an addition at Hunter Middle School so that Bryan Johnson will start the year with a room. Also pray that Kim Hixson will finally get a portable classroom all her own.
- Pray that the students will be well-disciplined and have an attitude for learning.
- Pray that the new principals and assistant principals at the various schools will be a good match for their community and their teachers.
- Pray for the first Strike Out Biblical Illiteracy Softball Tournament July 20 - 22. Pray that teams will participate and that more in our community will learn about Bible in the Schools.
- Pray for the families of our Bible history teachers. There are many physical, emotional and spiritual needs.
- Pray for the teachers as they begin a new school year in August.

*“Wisdom is supreme;
therefore get wisdom.
Though it cost all you have, get understanding”*

- Proverbs 4:7
